

NDC Exchange by atpco | SITA

An easy and cost-effective way for airlines and travel sellers to unlock the value of your data through NDC

OFFER CONSISTENT AIRLINE PRODUCTS EVERYWHERE, WITHOUT WASTING RESOURCES ON BUILDING EVERY CONNECTION

What makes NDC Exchange different?

COMMUNITY-DRIVEN MARKETPLACE

For airlines and travel sellers who want to create offers and distribute them directly to customers, NDC Exchange is a community-driven marketplace that gives you an easy and cost-effective way to adopt NDC.

ONE PLATFORM; ALL DISTRIBUTION POINTS

Translate messages no matter what API or XML schema you are using. Whether you are an airline or travel seller using a pre-NDC API or you are still developing your API, the exchange has you covered. On one platform, you can extend your reach to traditional and non-traditional distribution points, reducing distribution costs and expediting interoperability across the ecosystem.

DEVELOPED BY ATPCO AND SITA

NDC Exchange is the only neutral hub connecting offers from airlines and travel sellers in a cloud-based, scalable environment, developed by ATPCO and SITA.

INNOVATE FASTER AND SMARTER

Changing customer demands require airlines and travel sellers to innovate faster and smarter to stay competitive and maximize revenue streams. Travelers want a shopping experience that is customized and differentiated by the comfort level and ancillaries they value. NDC Exchange removes the complexity from all the different messaging standards and versions used by many airlines and travel sellers, creating infinite opportunities to transfer and exchange customized offers.
