KEY BENEFITS

- Integrated into your workflow
  Get faster and more accurate handling of baggage policies at all touch-points including booking and check-in for consistent data quality through workflow channels.

- Manage multiple policies
  With access to the 410 airlines that process baggage allowance and charges with ATPCO, never second-guess what policies your interline partners or competitors have.

- Industry’s best
  The only industry-recognized solution that gives you the ability to validate specific market policy coding based on regulations and other policies before production.

KEEP UP WITH TODAY’S INDUSTRY

As airlines increase interline flights and develop ancillary strategies with unbundled services, baggage policies continue to grow in complexity. Knowing what to charge, when to charge, and who to charge is a hassle of sorting out interline agreements and government regulations. ATPCO’s Baggage Calculator provides a dynamic solution that takes the guesswork out of it, always ensuring you have the correct baggage policies for reservations, audit, and analysis.
AN EASY-TO-USE TOOL

Communicate your policies to your customers with ease

With more than half of reservations happening online, airlines need to communicate policies effectively and accurately. Integrate your own policies on your website and airport kiosks so your customers are always up-to-date on what baggage is allowed, what charges they might have, and what they can’t bring so they stay happy.

Never question your interline partner policies again

Make interline easy, whether it’s ensuring your interline policies are reflected or double-checking debit memos. Baggage Calculator allows you to consistently have your partners’ policies at your fingertips for fast and accurate auditing and analysis.

Presenting your airline with revenue opportunities

In an industry where baggage has become a multi-million-dollar business, airlines need to stay competitive in different market segments. Compare your policies based on itinerary to ensure you’re delivering the best policy possible.
